

Top 10 New Restaurants of 2004

By Citysearch Staff, Boston

On This Page: The Top 10 | More of Boston's Top Restaurants

1. restaurant L
234 Berkeley St, Boston, MA
Inventive, Asian-tinged modern cuisine combines with a sleek atmosphere to yield Boston's most stylish culinary experience.
2. Salts
798 Main St, Cambridge, MA
Longtime Cambridge favorite bursts back onto the scene thanks to new ownership, romantic interior and adventurous menu.
3. Tamarind Bay
75 Winthrop St, Cambridge, MA
The city's most inventive Indian restaurant now resides in Harvard Square, courtesy of one of India's most famous chefs.
4. Aujourd'hui
200 Boylston St, Boston, MA
An exciting young French chef and renovated interior puts the Four Seasons' acclaimed dining room back in the game
5. Rustic Kitchen
1815 Massachusetts Ave
Cambridge, MA
Cambridge outpost of popular Quincy Market restaurant offers a more comfortable, less touristy environment for enjoying Italian comfort fare.
6. Croma
269 Newbury St, Boston, MA
Newbury Street eatery lures tourists and locals alike with a stylish setting, addictive pizzas and smartly chosen wine list.
7. Smith & Wollensky
101 Arlington St, Boston, MA
New York-based steakhouse chain makes a splashy Boston debut by serving big-ticket cuts of beef in high-profile environs.
8. Scollay Square
21 Beacon St, Boston, MA
Modern American cuisine and a Roaring '20s theme provides State House staffers and Beacon Hill locals with an enjoyable juxtaposition.
9. La Morra
48 Boylston St (Rte 9), Brookline Village, MA
Brookline Village restaurant's adventurous northern Italian cuisine makes repeat customers out of suburban couples.
10. Tryst
689 Massachusetts Ave, Arlington, MA
Modern American favorites and a stylish environment combine to produce Arlington Center's classiest restaurant.